Dear Sir/Madam,

Re: Notice regarding Substitute Service of Process

Further to the Partnership’s immediate report of July 13, 2020 (Ref. No.: 2020-01-067480) regarding the petition of the Partnership and the General Partner (the “Petitioners”) to the Tel Aviv District Court in connection with implementation of the provisions of Section 19 of the Taxation of Profits from Natural Resources Law, 5771-2011 (“Section 19”), together with a motion to allow substitute service of process on the holders of the participation units of the Partnership, the Partnership hereby respectfully reports that on October 18, 2020, the court granted the Petitioners’ motion for substitute service of process, according to the language attached hereto as Annex A, and also determined a timeframe for the filing of the responses. In addition, the court ordered that the originating application will be heard together with an originating application that was filed by the partnership Isramco Negev 2 on the same issue (O.A. 32178-03-20).

A copy of the originating application (including the exhibits thereto) is attached hereto as Annex B<sup>1</sup>.

In this context it is noted that further to the publication of the draft Income Tax Regulations (Rules for the Calculation of Tax due to the Holding and Sale of Participation Units in Oil Exploration Partnerships) (Amendment), 5781-2020, for public comment<sup>2</sup>, the Partnership is examining the impact of the said draft regulations on the originating application at bar.

Sincerely,

Delek Drilling Management (1993) Ltd.
