Dear Sir/Madam

Re: Appeal from the Judgment in the Administrative Petition concerning the election of the Leviathan partners’ bid as the winner of the competitive process for the supply of natural gas to Israel Electric Corporation Ltd. (“IEC”)

Further to the immediate report dated July 7, 2019 (Ref.: 2019-01-057993) regarding the judgment of the Tel Aviv District Court, denying the administrative petition filed by some of the Tamar partners (the “Judgment”, the “Petition” and the “Petitioners”, respectively), against the IEC and the Leviathan partners in connection with the election of the Leviathan partners’ bid as the winner in the request for proposals for the supply of natural gas to IEC and further to the immediate reports referred to in the aforesaid immediate report, the Partnership hereby announces that on August 19, 2019, the Petitioners filed an appeal from the Judgment with the Supreme Court (the “Appeal”) in which the court was moved to revoke the Judgment and rule as requested in the Petition.

The Partnership, with the assistance of its legal counsel, will study the details of the Appeal and respond accordingly. It is noted that, on June 12, 2019, an agreement was signed between the Leviathan partners and the IEC for the supply of natural gas, as specified in the immediate report of the Partnership dated June 12, 2019 (Ref.: 2019-01-049854), under which natural gas supply is expected upon the commencement of production of gas from the Leviathan reservoir.

The partners in the Leviathan project and their holding rates are:

Noble Energy Mediterranean Ltd.	39.66%
Delek Drilling – Limited Partnership	45.34%
Ratio Oil Exploration (1992) Limited Partnership	15.00%

Sincerely,
